

RRYC Summer Sailing Camp Rules

1. Sailors must wear their PFD's at all times while on the water, dock, floating dock and boats.
2. Willingness to learn and participate is required. Any sailor who refuses to participate will be asked to leave the class and his/her parent will be called to take him/ her home for the remainder of the day. In the case of a repeated offense or at the discretion of the Head Instructor on the first offense, the sailor will be asked not to return and no refund will be given.
3. The use of skateboards, bikes, roller blades, scooters and other recreational modes of transportation are not allowed on RRYC grounds.
4. Sailors are not allowed on the RRYC dock or floating dock nor to swim off the dock without permission of an Instructor.
5. Sportsman-like behavior is to be demonstrated by all sailors at all times, in keeping with the Corinthian spirit of RRYC.
6. Sailors shall not use, borrow or take equipment that is not theirs without permission from the owner.
7. Water guns, water balloons, and other non-sailing toys are not permitted during program hours, unless by permission of the Head Instructor.
8. Appropriate sailing attire must be worn during program hours.
9. Sailors are responsible for putting away all gear at the end of each day.
10. Sailors are responsible for providing their own lunches during camp.
11. Sailors may not leave class until a parent or guardian has signed them out with an Instructor.
12. Hitting, fighting and/or bad language will not be tolerated. Any sailor who exhibits this behavior will be asked to leave the class and his/her parent will be called to take him/her home for the remainder of the day. In the case of a repeated offense or at the discretion of the Head Instructor on the first offense, the sailor will be asked not to return and no refund will be given.
13. Abuse of boats or failure to follow safety instructions will lead to loss of sailing privileges, expulsion from the class, and/or potential financial responsibility.
14. Sailors may not bring alcohol, tobacco or non-authorized medication or drugs on to RRYC property. Violation of this rule is grounds for immediate expulsion from the program without refund.
